

Huka Lodge

Since it was founded in the 1920s, Huka Lodge has been sought by the world's most discerning travellers for its generous hospitality and magnificent location. This iconic retreat is consistently ranked amongst the finest in the world and was the proud recipient of the Tatler Award for Enduring Excellence. The Lodge nestles amongst seventeen acres of manicured gardens on the banks of the mighty Waikato River, upstream from the Huka Falls and within a protected nature reserve. All eighteen Junior Lodge Suites, one Suite and the two private cottages enjoy superb river views.

There are over twenty unforgettable private dining locations to be enjoyed within the lodge, on the terrace by open fires or at a table for two under the stars within a garden ranked as of 'National Significance'.
