

Nelson and Abel Tasman Explorer

The Nelson region has long been one of New Zealand's holiday hotspots. The township itself is known for its arts and crafts scene, and the weird and wonderful World of Wearable Arts Museum. Outside of the town, the rich soil and year round sun makes it the hop growing capital of the country, so you're never far from a craft beer brewery, or a vineyard if you prefer. Then tucked away between Tasman Bay and the aptly named Golden Bay is the Abel Tasman National Park, New Zealand's smallest national park, and arguably the most beautiful. Explore her golden sand beaches, kayak the crystal clear waters in search of seals and seabirds, and walk the ever popular Abel Tasman Coast Track.

Package includes:

Clifftops Retreat

Clifftops Retreat is a luxury cottage perched high on the cliffs near Nelson, overlooking sandy beaches, the glittering Tasman Sea, and the sparkling lights of Nelson; a spectacular location. A spa pool set right on the cliff edge offers you breathtaking views while the warm waters envelope and relax you. The private and secluded villa, set in five parklike acres, caters for just two people and is absolutely fully self-contained in every sense of the word.

Edenhouse

Nestled in the stunning Orinoco Valley, this enchanting country house hideaway is set in fifty acres of private grounds and eight acres of internationally acclaimed gardens. Guests have a choice of staying in the luxurious suite in the main lodge, or one of the two stylishly appointed and very private cottages. In 2016, Edenhouse received the highest recorded score for excellence by the prestigious Andrew Harper network.

Split Apple Retreat

Split Apple Retreat is a quiet, luxurious four suite hideaway on the edge of the stunning Abel Tasman National Park. Furnished with original Asian antiques and works of art dating back, the property is an architectural statement of particular merit. The retreat offers a saltwater infinity pool, spa and sauna, private access to two beaches, massage, yoga and personal fitness training, acupuncture, gym, meditation guidance, and an eight seat theatre.
