

Where New Zealand Began

Travel to the 'Winterless North' and the maritime playground of the Bay of Islands. This is where the tale of New Zealand's colonisation began, boasting sights such as New Zealand's oldest buildings in Kerikeri; New Zealand's first capital city and 'Hellhole of the Pacific', Russell; and the iconic Waitangi Treaty Grounds near Paihia, which you'll visit. Complete the Northland experience with an incredibly scenic flight to Cape Reinga, where you'll land and visit the picturesque lighthouse.

Package includes:

- Three nights accommodation
- Half day tour to Cape Reinga by fixed wing plane
- Guided tour of the Waitangi Treaty Grounds
- Some meals as detailed below

The Duke of Marlborough Hotel

The Duke is located on the waterfront in the picturesque village of Russell. With easy access to an exciting array of activities and excursions, the 190 year old property has a combination of rooms and suites which enjoy views across the water to Waitangi Treaty Grounds and Paihia. The hotel dining room offers an international cuisine and is considered one of Russell's best restaurants.

Sanctuary at the Bay of Islands

The Sanctuary offers elegance, style and luxury in a private, native bush reserve a few minutes drive from Paihia, the bay's major township. With five guest rooms the two level cedar-clad lodge overlooks the Veronica Channel between Paihia and Russell. Dinner at The Sanctuary is highly recommended, using the freshest of Northland produce, local seafood and grain fed beef and award winning cuts of lamb.

The Lodge at Kauri Cliffs

Set on 6,000 acres near Matauri Bay, The Lodge at Kauri Cliffs affords spectacular 180 degree views of the Pacific Ocean, Cape Brett and the Cavalli Islands. A splendid plantation style lodge hosts elegant living rooms and a beautiful dining room with outdoor decks overlooking the ocean. The magnificent spa facility nestles at the edge of a native totara forest along with 22 guest suites.
