Art Deco Masonic Hotel

Napier's leading boutique hotel, situated on the Marine Parade with panoramic views of the Pacific Ocean, is a 1930's Art Deco jewel surrounded by a number of excellent examples of Art Deco architecture including the Hawkes Bay's MTG Museum and The Art Deco Centre. With a choice of rooms and suites The Art Deco Masonic Hotel is an excellent base from which to visit the many attractions for which Napier and the surrounding Hawkes Bay area has earned an enviable reputation.

Millar Road

Set on a beautiful vineyard estate, Millar Road offers stylish accommodation taking in views of mountain ranges, the Pacific Ocean and Hawke's Bay wine country. Millar Road Estate is comprised three self contained villas, all of which share a swimming pool and pool house with bar. Living, dining and kitchen areas are large open spaces that integrate with outdoor terraces for indoor-outdoor wining, dining and relaxing. Guests receive generous breakfast supplies and a bottle of Millar Road's organic estate wine, "The Supernatural".

The Farm at Cape Kidnappers

Set atop 6,000 rolling acres of spectacular pastureland and some of the most dramatic scenery in Hawke's Bay, The Farm at Cape Kidnappers represents all that is outstanding in the New Zealand lodge experience. All 22 suites are full of natural light, with breathtaking views over the Pacific. Onsite activities include golf, hiking, gannet safari, kiwi discovery walks, farm tours, fitness centre, full service spa, Jacuzzi and pool.
