

Marlborough Wine and Food

The Marlborough region is synonymous with wine, most famously the world beating Sauvignon Blanc. Stay amongst the vines in gorgeous boutique accommodations, and explore the cellar doors, tasting as you go, on a privately guided tour. Then discover Marlborough's other jewel, the meandering Marlborough Sounds. The spectacular maze of inlets, islands and bays makes up a staggering one fifth of New Zealand's total coastline, and unsurprisingly is home to delicious seafood at every turn.

Package includes:

- Three nights accommodation
- Privately guided wine tour of the Marlborough vineyards
- Shared small group seafood cruise through the Marlborough Sounds
- Breakfast daily and some other meals as detailed
