

Otahuna Lodge – Back your Backyard and Lord of the Manor Packages

Built in 1895 for Canterbury pioneer Sir Heaton Rhodes, Otahuna Lodge is one of the best examples of Queen Anne architecture in Australasia and is protected by the New Zealand Historic Places Trust. A member of the prestigious Relais & Châteaux network, the Lodge is an exclusive retreat of seven suites with retaining grand architectural features from the nineteenth century such as ornate wood burning fireplaces, carved inglenooks and stained glass windows. Food and wine is an integral part of the experience with a menu celebrating the best of fresh New Zealand produce with an emphasis on seasonal estate grown offerings from its own organic kitchen gardens. Awarded 'New Zealand Garden of National Significance' status in 2009, the spectacular 115 year old grounds of thirty acres provide a special sanctuary in which to enjoy this very special property.
