

Geothermal Forces

See the power of Mother Nature at Rotorua's geothermal parks, starring erupting geysers, boiling pools of mud, decimated volcanoes, and steaming lakes and streams. Hike up Mount Tarawera, a wasteland or red burned rock, and feel the thrill of a scree run down into the crater. Then soothe your joints with a visit to the world renowned Polynesian Spa for some mineral goodness.

Package includes:

- Three nights accommodation
- Shared guided hike up Mount Tarawera
- Admission to Waiotapu Thermal Wonderland
- Admission to Polynesian Spa
- Some meals as detailed below

The Regent of Rotorua

The Regent of Rotorua is Rotorua's boutique hotel of choice offering 'hip hotel' style accommodation and facilities with a touch of glamour. Step out of your room and stroll to Rotorua's welcoming restaurant zone and lakefront area or simply stay in. The Regent Room Restaurant & Wine Bar has opened to excellent reviews and offers a selection of tasty treats, cocktails, a great wine list and contemporary Pacific fusion cuisine as well as small sharing plates and tapas. Facilities include an outdoor heated thermal mineral swimming pool and indoor thermal spa.

Peppers on the Point

Surrounded by Lake Rotorua, Peppers on the Point, is an intimate retreat featuring spectacular views to the historic Mokoia Island. Five minutes from the heart of Rotorua, Peppers on the Point was originally one of Rotorua's stately homes before being converted to accommodation. With Rotorua being the heartland of New Zealand's Maori culture, Peppers on the Point is located near a landscape of erupting geysers, hot thermal springs and bubbling mud pools.

Solitaire Lodge

Solitaire Lodge offers secluded lakeside accommodation and breathtaking views over Lake Tarawera from a lush natural bush setting. Styled with comfort in mind, the nine luxurious suites all feature views over Lake Tarawera's still deep waters. Freestanding bathtubs allow the luxury of such views while soaking. Renowned for its fine dining, the lodge serves contemporary New Zealand cuisine prepared with fresh local produce and superb wines from selected vineyards.
