

Split Apple Retreat and Hideaway

Split Apple Retreat is a quiet, luxurious four suite hideaway built high into a cliff face on the edge of the stunning Abel Tasman National Park. It offers every indulgence as well as the additional promise of exceptional cuisine for good health and nutrition. Furnished with original Asian antiques and works of art dating back to as early as the third century, the property is an architectural statement of particular merit. The pristine natural environment in which the retreat is located offers a saltwater infinity pool, spa and sauna, private access to two beaches, massage, yoga and personal fitness training, acupuncture, gym, meditation guidance, and an eight seat theatre. Split Apple Retreat's innovative gourmet menu extracts the very best from Asian and Mediterranean cuisines and fuses them into mouthwatering creations. Whilst only comprising ingredients that make a positive contribution to health and wellness.
