

The Boathouse at The Landing

The Landing encompasses four superb Residences offering luxury, privacy and bespoke service in unparalleled surroundings. The Boathouse is a striking, airy structure based on the design of a colonial woolshed that used to stand on the property. Located on the water's edge at Wairoa Bay, close to The Landing jetty, The Boathouse offers extensive living space, including a covered courtyard, terraces and an outdoor fireplace area. Generous indoor and outdoor entertainment areas flow seamlessly into each other. The Boathouse sleeps four people in two bedrooms: one king master bedroom and one twin room. There is one bathroom in The Boathouse itself and another in the adjacent service building.

A stay at The Landing allows exploration of six private beaches, native bush and bird sanctuaries as well as access to a range of outdoor activities.
